

The organisers of the International Medieval Congress reserve the right to change the content of the programme, speakers, or venue, should the need arise.

During the course of the Congress, the organisers or an individual speaker may issue notes, examples, or other material which should be treated as confidential and the property of the party issuing it. Participants may not use such material or republish it in any way without first obtaining the specific consent of the party concerned. The IMC may use images and other digital recordings of delegates made at the IMC 2018 for promotional purposes.

The University of Leeds takes all reasonable precautions for the security of visitors and of their property. Participants are nevertheless advised to exercise due care to secure their property. No responsibility can be accepted for loss or damage however caused.

All participants of the IMC are required to register at www.leeds.ac.uk/imc. All speakers, chairs, and respondents listed in the IMC 2018 programme have agreed to attend the IMC 2018. Should a listed participant have to withdraw for whatever reason (s)he is required to contact the IMC administration immediately. If we have not received a listed participant's registration within two weeks of the IMC 2018 we will automatically remove his/her name from the programme and list the participation as withdrawn. The IMC administration makes every effort to ensure the stability of the academic programme for the IMC, but cannot guarantee the participation of any listed individual and reserves the right to change the sessions should the need arise.

The International Medieval Congress is organised and administered by the Institute for Medieval Studies, University of Leeds with the assistance of the IMC Programming Committee and the IMC Standing Committee.
